Brief Description of project:

The following items must accompany the application or it will not be accepted:

- Completed application; (see guidelines for details)

- ❑ $10 Submission Fee (make cheque payable to NB Film Co-op)
- ❑ List of credits; (this is especially important for NB Resident filmmakers as we need to know exactly who did what on your production for award purposes if your film is deemed eligible). If you not clear, an award opportunity could be missed. Only NB Residents are eligible for specific NB Film Awards and proof of residency will be asked for if it is unclear).
- ❑ 3 DVD pre-screening copies of the finished project for program and jury consideration. If 3 DVD screenings copies are not submitted with festival application material, film will not be eligible for jury consideration for awards. (NOTE: DVDS will not be accepted for screening at the festival)
- ❑ Productions stills on CD, in jpeg format at 300dpi resolution, on CD to be used in Media Promotion;
- ❑ Press Kit; (past screenings of your film at other festivals/events if any)
- ❑ Director's Bio and headshot;
- ❑ Poster representing the film or documentary; (if available)
- ❑ If your film is accepted for screening at SWFF. You must then enclose a pre-paid envelope so that your master screening copy can be mailed back to you afterwards.
